

11th – 13th c. Names from the Abbey of Korvey, Saxony

Korvey was a Benedictine abbey in the Westphalian part of Saxony, on the River Weser (North Rhine-Westphalia, Germany). The names here are taken from the Liber Beati Viti Martiris in Corbeya (Johan Hendrik Gallée. Old-Saxon Texts. Leiden. E.J. Brill. 1894. pp. 192-202. <http://books.google.com/books?id=fDRCAAAAMAAJ&pg=PA192>)

The names of the tributaries of Korvey are, for the MOST part, in one hand dating to the close of the 11th century. A later hand added some names at the foot DATING from the 12th cent., and are distinguished from the former in having Latin endings. At about the same time a third hand is represented now and then broken off by others. The last hand wrote after the time of Prior Hugo (1219-1224).
